1. On 26 April 1955, Otto Nuschke attended a conference with Semenov who came to East Berlin on 25 April. According to Nuschke, the Soviet Ambassador in Berlin had stated that the GDR would be given a greater role in the future negotiations on the reunification of Germany. The CDU/Ost and Nuschke himself would also play a decisive role in this question. Nuschke was to strengthen all connections with bourgeois circles in [redacted] other West European countries. Semenov had allegedly also suggested that Nuschke attend the World Conference of Journalists scheduled to be held in the near future [redacted]. So far it had only been intended to send Dr. Wilhelm Girnus and Dr. Karl Bittel as delegates to this conference. Semenov had stated, however, that the Soviet government did not want to have the GDR represented abroad exclusively by SED members.

2. At the conference mentioned above, Semenov also expressed the desire that the CDU/Ost take a greater interest in the promotion of church affairs. Semenov, who appeared rather genial, indicated that he firmly believed in the speedy reunification of Germany and a peaceful solution of all outstanding problems.

Comment. Nuschke has also previously been used as Semenov's mouthpiece when the Soviets were interested in influencing the bourgeois parties [redacted] Nuschke will probably play an important role within the framework of Soviet infiltration policies. The calculated optimism displayed by Semenov in the question of the reunification of Germany indicates that the propaganda campaign for the reunification of Germany is going to be increased. Professor Dr. Karl Bitter, an SED member, is known to be the chief of the East German Institute for Contemporary History. Dr. Wilhelm Girmus, also an SED member and a member of the SED [redacted]."
